R. H. Meredith & Co.
(1887)

Rensselaar (Renssaler/Rensselaer) DeGeer (1831-1917) was born in Stouffville, Ontario, Canada. He and his brother Philip emigrated to the U. S. and settled in Sanilac County, Michigan. Philip was a bugler in the Fourth Michigan Volunteer Infantry regiment in the civil war and formed a band in Lexington, Michigan, after the war. Rens played horn in the band and taught music in the Lexington schools. A small number of compositions appear in a few pedagogical collections.

Sleep, beloved, sleep,
Secure from earthly fears,
While mortal life shall last
Found memories of the past
Shall mingle with our tears.
Sleep, sleep, sleep, beloved, sleep.

Sleep, beloved, sleep,
And rest from earthly strife;
Death claimed thee in thy bloom,
We lay thee in the tomb,
'Till Christ shall give thee life.
Sleep, sleep, sleep, beloved, sleep.

Sleep, beloved, sleep,
We meet on earth no more;
But hope to meet again,
Beyond the reach of pain,
On heaven's eternal shore.
Sleep, sleep, sleep, beloved, sleep.

TERMS OF USE

These editions are available as a service to the choral community, offering inexpensive access to public domain literature. Choir resources can purchase other literature still under copyright, especially to support those creating and publishing new compositions and arrangements. These editions have been created using public domain sources under U. S. copyright law. Out of respect to the research, time and effort invested:

- please print and issue an edition in its entirety, retaining notices, attributions, and logos.
- please do not consider this edition a source for creating another edition.

If performed, sending a copy of the concert program would be a valuable affirmation. If recorded, notification and attribution would be appropriate professional courtesies and a copy of the recording would be greatly appreciated!
