

Solemn Thought

Anonymous, before 1820

Transcribed from Songs of Zion, 1821

A minor
James P. Carrell, 1821

Tr.  5 10

1. Remember, sinful youth, you must die, you must die, Remember, sinful youth, you must die. Re-mem-ber, sin-ful youth, If you deny the truth, Through
2. Uncertain are your days, here be-low, here be-low, Uncertain are your days, here be-low. Un-cer-tain are your days, For God hath many ways To

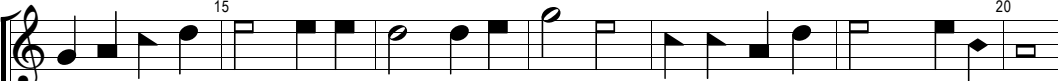

C.

3. The God that built the sky, great I Am, great I Am, The God that built the sky, great I Am. The God that built the sky, Hath said and cannot lie, Im-

T.

4. Come then, my friends, don't you, I entreat, I entreat, Come then, my friends, don't you, I entreat. Come then my friends, don't you Your sinful ways pursue, Your
5. But to the Savior flee, 'scape for life, 'scape for life, But to the Savior flee, 'scape for life. But to the Savior flee, Lest death e-ter-nal-ly Shall

B.

Tr.  15 20

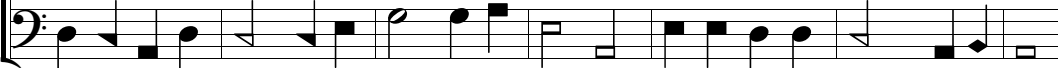

1. vast e-ter-ni-ty, you must die, you must die, Through vast e-ter-ni-ty, you must die.
2. bring you to your graves, here below, here below, To bring you to your graves, here be-low.

C.

3. -penitents shall die, and be damned, and be damned, Im-pen-i-tents shall die, and be damned.

T.

4. precious souls undo, I en-treat, I en-treat, Your precious souls un-do, I en-treat.
5. be your des-ti-ny, 'scape for life, 'scape for life, Shall be your des-ti-ny, 'scape for life.

B.

Possibly an arrangement by Carrell of an older folk hymn.
Southern Harmony (1835), No. 28, is a three-part reduction of the above.