Tr. 1. When I my var-ious blessings see, What a kind God has done for me, My heart with gratitude should glow, I love the spring from whence they flow.

C. 2. For me His only Son He sent, For me the Savior und - er - went The cross, the ag - on - ies, the shame; For - ev - er will I bless His name.

T. 3. And though I sin and grieve Him still, His mercy spares my soul from hell: Those gloomy regions of des-pair, For devils to tor - ment me there.

B. 4. If I'll o - bey His gentle voice, His heaven He offers to my choice. My tongue His mercies shall record, And all my actions praise the Lord.
