I Was the Boat Man

SSA a cappella

M. Furtak

Soprano: I knew the jack who felled the tree. I knew the man who milled the wood. I knew the wright who built the boat, and the boat man, and the boat man he was me. I knew the jack who felled the tree. I knew the Alto: I knew the jack who felled the tree. I knew the man who milled the wood. I knew the wright who built the boat, and the boat man he was me. I knew the jack who felled the

S. man who milled the wood. I knew the wright who built the

S. man who milled the wood.___ I knew the wright who built the

A. tree.___ I knew the man who milled the wood,___

S. boat,___ and the boat man, and the boat man he was me.

S. boat,___ and the boat man, and the boat man he was me. I knew the

A. ___ and the boat man he was me.

1.

2. B

S. me. Come raise a glass to men like these.___

S. me. I was the man who worked the

A. me.___ Come raise a glass to men like these.___

Their day is done, they work no more._____ Long may you

boat._____ I used to sail out from the shore._____

Their day is done, they work no more._____ Long may you

weep for men like these,_____ but

_____ Gone are the men who know the tide._____

weep for men like these,_____ but

I was a boat man.   Yes, I was a boat man,   and I weep for the sea._____

Yes, I was a boat man,   and I weep for the sea._____

I was a boat man.   Yes, I was a boat man,   and I weep for the sea._____

rit.