2) To shew the kindness of the Lord, before the day be light,
   And to declare his truth abroad, when it doth draw to night;
3) On a ten-stringed instrument, on lute and harp so sweet.
   With all the mirth you can invent of instruments most meet.
4) For thou hast made me to rejoice in things so wrought by thee,
   That I have joy in heart and voice thy handy works to see.
5) O Lord, how glorious and how great are thy works round about!
   So deeply are thy counsels set, that none can find them out:
6) The man unwise cannot tell how this work to pass to bring,
   And fools also are most unfit to understand this thing.
7) When as they wicked at their will, like grass do spring full fast:
   And when they flourish in their ill, they suddenly shall waste.
8) But do art mighty, Lord most high, and thou dost reign therefore
   In glory and great majesty, both now and evermore.
9) Behold, O Lord, thine enemies, shall be destroy'd alway,
   And all that work iniquity shall perish and decay.
10) But thou, like as an unicorn, shall lift mine horn on high;
    With fresh and new-prepared oil anointed king am I:
11) And of my foes before my eyes shall see the fall and shame,
    Of all that do against me rise, my ears shall hear the same.
12) The righteous flourish shall on high, as palm-strees bud and blow,
    And as the cedars multiply in Libanus that grow.
13) For they planted in the place and dwelling of our God:
    Within his courts they spring apace, and flourish all abroad:
14) And in their age much fruit shall bring, most pleasant to be seen,
    And also shall both bud and spring, with boughs and branches green.
15) To shew that God is good and just, and upright in his will:
    He is my rock, my hope and trust, in him there is no ill.
