which he swore to our forefather Abraham, that he would give us, that he would give us; that we, being delivered out of the hands of our enemies, might serve him without fear; in holy ness and righ-teous-ness be-fore him, all the days of our life. And thou, child, shall be called the prophet of the High'st, for shalt be called the prophet of the High'st, for shalt be called the prophet of the High'st, of the High'st, for thou shalt go before the face of the Lord to prepare his ways; to give knowledge of salvation unto his people, for the remission of their sins, through the tender mercy of our God, whereby the day-spring from on high hath visited us; to give light to them that from on high hath visited us; to give light to them that
