The heavens and earth, the oceans and seas, the creatures in water and day and the night I crafted with loving hand. The mountains and plains I crafted with loving hand. The those in the sky I crafted with loving hand. The sky up above, the water below I made and saw it was sun and the moon, the stars burning bright I made and saw it was beasts on the land who run and who creep I made and saw it was In my image I have made you, I have

In my image I have made you,
In my image I have made you,

breathed the breath of life into you. Woman and man,

breathed the breath of life into you. Woman and man,

breathed the breath of life into you. Woman and man,

I have made you good.

I have made you good.

I have made you good.

I have made you good.
