J. Calvin Bushey
(1847-1929)

James Calvin Bushey (1847-1929) was born in Arendtsville, Pennsylvania (near Gettysburg). He taught in a singing school at Prairie, Ohio, before moving west. He taught in Mason City, Iowa, was professor of music at Ellsworth College, and taught in Gilman, Illinois, and Peoria, Illinois. He died in Peoria. He compiled and contributed to several collections of sacred and secular music for use in churches, Sunday schools, singing schools, and musical conventions.

A home, a home on the rushing sea,
Where the waves are wild
And the winds are free;
Where the dashing spray is tossed in glee,
And the foam is light as foam can be.

A home, a home, a home by the rushing sea,
A home, a home, a home by the rushing sea.

There bright at eve is each kindling star,
Where the vesper's sweet Echo from afar;
Where the ocean murmurs lie and dream,
In the depths where sleep the pearl's bright gleam.

TERMS OF USE

These editions are available as a service to the choral community, offering inexpensive access to public domain literature. Choir resources can purchase other literature still under copyright, especially to support those creating and publishing new compositions and arrangements. These editions have been created using public domain sources under U. S. copyright law. Out of respect to the research, time and effort invested:

- please print and issue an edition in its entirety, retaining notices, attributions, and logos.
- please do not consider this edition a source for creating another edition.

If performed, sending a copy of the concert program would be a valuable affirmation. If recorded, notification and attribution would be appropriate professional courtesies and a copy of the recording would be greatly appreciated!
