Benedicamus Domino

Angelorum Gloriæ in car-nan-tur ho-di-e pa-nis a-ra gra-ti-æ cui si-ne ter-mi-no be-ne-di-ca-mus Do-mi-no.

Alle-lu-ia, alle-lu-ia, alle-lu-ia, alle-lu-ia.

The glories of the angels take on flesh today as bread by virtue of the altar of grace, for which we bless the Lord without end.
The angel announced peace to all good people.
He shone brightly before the shepherds, even as the brightness of the sun.
Let us all return thanks. Alleluia
