

Lord to thee I make my moan

Henry Noell Lamentations 6 De Profundis, psalm 130

John Dowland

Lord to thee I make my moan Whendangers me oppress,
I call, I sigh, plain and groan Trustring to find relief.

Lord to thee I make my moan Whendangers me oppress,
I call, I sigh, plain and groan Trustring to find relief.

8 Lord to thee I make my moan Whendangers me oppress,
I call, I sigh, plain and groan Trustring to find relief.

Lord to thee I make my moan Whendangers me oppress,
I call, I sigh, plain and groan Trustring to find relief.

Hear now, O Lord my request For it is full due time,

Hear now, O Lord my request For it is full due time,

8 Hear now, O Lord my request For it is full due time,

Hear now, O Lord my request For it is full due time,

And let thine ear aye be pressed Unto this prayer mine.

And let thine ear aye be pressed Unto this prayer mine.

8 And let thine ear aye be pressed Unto this prayer mine.

And let thine ear aye be pressed Unto this prayer mine.
