

1. Not to con-demn the sons of men, Did Christ, the Son of God, ap-pear; No wea-pons in his

2. Sin - ners, be-lieve the Sa-vior's word, Trust in his migh - ty name and live; A thou-sand joys his hand are seen, No fla - ming sword nor thun-der there. Such was the pi - ty of our God, He lips af - ford, His hands a thou-sand bles-sings give. But ven - geance and dam - na - tion lies On loved the race of men so well, He sent his Son to bear our load Of sins, and save our souls from hell.

re - bels who re - fuse the grace; Who God's e - ter-nal Son de - spise, The hot - test hell shall be their place.

Edited by B. C. Johnston, 2016
Measure 3, Tenor: Quarter-note on fourth beat changed from B to C.