Fie on this feigning

John Dowland
(1562-1626)

Fie on this feigning, Is love without desire, Heat still re-Show some relent ing, Or grant thou dost now love, Two hearts con-Truth is not placed In words and forced smiles, Love is not true, nor wer't with fancy mov-ed, fess that love is without plea-sure,

like, yield fire, or give no fu-el,

thou art un-true nor wer't with fancy mov-ed,
yield or con-fess that love is without plea-sure,

true, un-true nor wer't with fancy mov-ed, for de-sire, fess, con-fess that love is without plea-sure, And that wo-

true, nor wer't with fancy mov-ed, For defess that love is without plea-sure, And that true, nor wer't with fancy mov-ed, for de-sire, fess, con-fess that love is without plea-sure, And that wo-

for de-sire hath power on all that e-ver lov-ed.

And that wo-men's boun-ties rob men of their treasure.

so may'st thou prove kind, or at the least less cru-el.

For de-sire hath power on all, on all that e-ver lov-ed.

And that wo-men's boun-ties rob men of their treas-ure.

So may'st thou prove kind, or at the least, the least less cru-el.

de-sire hath power, hath power on all, that e-ver lov-ed.

men's, wo-men's boun-ties, boun-ties rob men of their treas-ure.

may'st thou prove kind, prove kind or at the least less cru-el.

sire, de-sire hath power on all, on all that e-ver lov-ed.

wo-men's, wo-men's boun-ties, boun-ties rob men of their treas-ure.

thou, may'st thou prove kind, prove kind or at the least less cru-el.
