Psalm 50

The Lord, th' almighty Monarch, spake

(from: Six english Psalms)

Joseph Haydn
1732 - 1809

Joseph Haydn

bade the earth the sum-mons take, and bade the earth the seat with match-less beau-ty crown'd, the seat with match-less thou, the fast ter-res-trial ball, and thou, the fast ter-

God the ba-lance shall as-sume, while God the ba-lance

haydn, psalm 50: the lord th'almighty monarch Summons take, far as his eyes the realms survey, beauty crown’d, our God his course shall bend, res trial ball, while man’s whole race their judge shall meet, shall assume, in full memorial shall record,

Summons take, far as his eyes the realms survey,
beauty crown’d, our God his course shall bend,
res trial ball, while man’s whole race their judge shall meet,
shall assume, in full memorial shall record,

Realms survey, of rising and declining cord, in countless throngs before his day, of rising and declining Lord, and own the justice of their Lord.

Haydn, Psalm 50: the Lord th’Almighty Monarch