

Jerusalem

No copyright. Transcribed from The Suffolk Harmony, 1786.

E♭ Major
William Billings, 1786

1. All is hush, the bat - tle's o'er! Dark - ness reigns in
2. See, a gleam of light ap - pears, Com - bats now my
3. Heaven - ly lau - rels crown His head, Sin and Hell and
4. I in Him, and He in me, Per - fect one in pur - ple gore; Each in - tell - i - gence in - tent Trem - bling, hope and fears; Now the heaven - ly glo - ry's come; O! who death are dead; The old ser - pent's head is broke; Heaven by mys - te - ry; With Him, where and as He is, Ful - ly waits the great e - vent. All are in sus - pense; darts from yon - der tomb? Cov - ered all with blood,

vi - o - lence is took; Hail thou con - quering heart;
en - tered in - to bliss: There shall I a - bide,

24

Tr. Here I'll stay, nor wan - der hence, Till the day - spring

C. pale and wound - ed? 'Tis my God! 'Tis the man who

T. Thou my new cre - a - tion art; Hail! My flesh, and

B. In my na - ture pur - i - fied; Here I en - ter

25

Tr. from on high Speaks: who gained the vic - to - ry.

C. con - quering fell, Dy - ing, van - quished death and Hell.

T. bone, and blood; Hail! my - self, re - deemed to God.

B. per - fect rest, Th'Fath - er's praise, his king and priest.

30