

Sunderland

Tr.  5 10

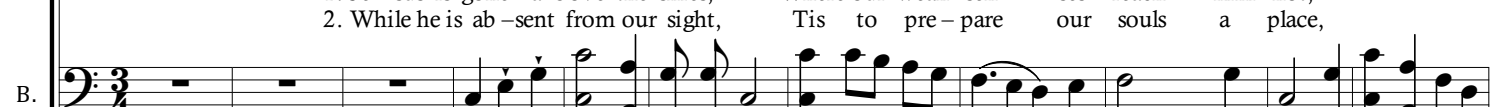

1. Je - sus is gone a - bove the skies, is gone a - bove the skies, Where our weak sen - ses reach him not; And car - nal ob -
2. While he is ab - sent from our sight, is ab - sent from our sight, Tis to pre - pare our souls a place, That we may dwell

C.

1. Je - sus is gone a - bove the skies, above the skies, Where our weak sen - ses reach him not;
2. While he is ab - sent from our sight, absent from sight, Tis to pre - pare our souls a place,

T.  8

1. Je - sus is gone a - bove the skies, Where our weak sen - ses reach him not;
2. While he is ab - sent from our sight, Tis to pre - pare our souls a place,

B.

1. Je - sus is gone above the skies, Where our weak sen - ses reach him not; And carnal ob -
2. While he is absent from our sight, Tis to pre - pare our souls a place, That we may dwell

Tr.  15 20

-jects court our eyes, To thrust our Sa - vior from our thought. And in hea - - - venly light, And live for ev - er near his face. That court our eyes, To thrust our Sa - vior from our thought.

C.

hea - - - venly light, And live for ev - er near his face.

T.  8

court our eyes, To thrust our Sa - vior from our thought. And car - nal ob - jects hea - venly light, And live for ev - er near his face. That we may dwell in

B.

-jects court our eyes, To thrust our Sa - vior from our thought. And car - nal ob - jects court in hea - - - venly light, And live for ev - er near his face. That we may dwell in hea - - -

Tr.  25 1. 2.

car - nal ob - jects court our eyes, To thrust our Sa - vior from our thought.
we may dwell in hea - - - venly light, And live for ev - er near his face.

C.

And carnal objects court our eyes, To thrust our Sa - vior from our thought.
That we may dwell in heav'nly light, And live for ev - er near his face.

T.  8

court our eyes, To thrust our Sa - vior from our thought.
hea - - - venly light, And live for ev - er near his face.

B.

our eyes, To thrust our Sa - vior from our thought. And
- - - - - venly light, And live for ev - er near his face. That