

tr. John Mason Neale
(1818-66)

Stars of the morning

Henry Smart
(1813-1879)

Trisagion (10 10 10 10)

1. Stars of the morning, so glorious - ly bright, Filled with ce -
2. These are thy coun - sel - lers, these dost thou own, Lord God of
3. These keep the guard a - mid Sa - lem's dear bowers; Thrones, Prin - ci -
4. 'Who like the Lord?' thun - ders Mich - ael the Chief; Raph - ael, 'the
5. Then, when the earth was first poised in mid space, Then, when the
6. Still let them suc - cour us; still let them fight, Lord of an - les - tial re - splen - dence and light, These that, where night ne - ver Sa - ba - oth, near - est thy throne; These are thy mi - ni - sters, pa - li - ties. Vir - tues, and Powers; Where, with the liv - ing ones, Cure of God,' com - for - teth grief; And, as at Na - za - reth, pla - nets first sped on their race, Then, when were end - ed the gel - ic hosts, batt - ling for right; Till, where their an - thems they fol - low - eth day, Raise the Tri - sag - i - on e - ver and ay.

these thou dost send, Help of the help - less ones, man to de - fend.
my - sti - cal Four, Che - ru - bim, Se - raph - im bow and a - dore. pro - phet of peace, Gab - riel, 'the Light of God,' bring - eth re - lease.
six days' em - ploy, Then all the Sons of God shout - ed for joy.
cease - less - ly pour, We with the an - gels may bow and a - dore.