I saw my lady weep

1. I saw my lady weep,
2. Sor-row was there made fair,
3. O fair-er than aught else,

And sor-row proud to be ad- van-
And pas-sion wise, tears a de-light-
The world can show, leave off in time

In those fair-
Silence be-Enough, e-

And sor-row proud to be ad-
And pas-sion wise, tears a de-
The world can show, leave off in time to grieve,

James Gibb editions
I saw my lady weep - Dowland
eyes, in those fair eyes where all per-fec-tions keep, yond all speech, be-yond all speech a wis-dom rare, enough, e-nough, e-nough, your joy-ful looks ex-cels, those fair eyes, fair eyes, where all per-fec-tions lence be-yond, be-yond all speech a wis-dom nough, your joy-ful looks, your joy-ful looks ex-

Her face was full of woe, full of woe; She made her sighs to sing, sighs to sing, Tears kills the heart, be-lieve, heart be-lieve. keep, Her face was full, full of rare, She made her sighs to sing, And cels, O strive not to be ex-cel-

But such a woe, be-lieve me, as wins more hearts, And all things with so sweet a sad-ness move, O strive not to be ex-cel-lent in woe, woe; But such a woe as wins all things with so sweet a sad-lent in woe, Tears kills the heart, ________

Than mirth can do, with her, with her en-ti-cing parts. As made my heart at once, at once both grieve and love. which on-ly, on-ly breeds your beau-ty's o-ver-throw. more hearts, Than mirth can do, with her en-ti-cing parts.

James Gibb editions
I saw my lady weep - Dowland