1. My soul, come me-di-tate the day, And think how near it stands,
2. How we should scorn these clothes of flesh, These fetters, and this load!
3. We should al - most for-sake our clay Be - fore the sum-mons come,

When thou must quit this house of clay, And fly to un-known lands.
And long for eve-ning to un-dress, That we may rest with God.
And pray and wish our souls a - way To their e - ter - nal home.

When thou must quit this house of clay, and fly to un-known lands.
And long for eve-ning to un-dress, That we may rest with God.
And pray and wish our souls a - way To their e - ter - nal home.
