O mountains, and break forth into singing, O mountains, O mountains, and break forth into singing, O mountains, O mountains:

O mountains:

for God, hath comforted his people, comforted his people:

for God hath comforted his people, his people: people, comforted his people, for com-for-ted his peo-ple, com-for-ted his peo-ple, for God hath com-for-ted his peo-ple, people, for God hath com-for-ted his peo-ple, his peo-ple, for people, for God hath com-for-ted his peo-ple, for God hath com-for-ted his people, for God hath com-for-ted his peo-ple, for
people, for God hath com-for-ted his people, com-for-ted his peo-ple, and will have mer-cy, and will have mer-cy, will have people, com-for-ted his peo-ple, and will have mer-cy, and will have mer-cy, and will
mercy, and will have mercy up on his afflicted, and will have mercy, and will have mercy up on his afflicted, and have mercy, and will have mercy, and will have mercy up on his afflicted, and they also give glory unto the Lord, give glory.
unto the Lord, unto the Lord:
unto the Lord, unto the Lord, unto the Lord, give glory unto the Lord; and glory unto the Lord, unto the Lord; and glory unto the Lord, unto the Lord; and glory unto the Lord, unto the Lord; and
declare his praise, and declare his praise,
declare his praise, and declare his praise, declare his praise for ever and ever,
and declare his praise, and declare his praise,
and declare his praise, and declare his praise, and declare his praise for ever and dclare his praise, declare his praise for ever and dclare his praise, declare his praise for ever and dclare his praise for ever, for ever and dclare his praise, for ever and ever, for ever and
