Of a Rose Synge We

Moderato ($\frac{\text{d}}{\text{m}}=120$)

S

A

T

B

Piano

(Rehearsal Only)

Mis-ter-i-um mi-ra-bi-le

Mis-ter-i-um mi-ra-bi-le.

Of a rose synge we Mis-ter-i-um mi-ra-bi-le.

Of a rose synge we Mis-ter-i-um mi-ra-bi-le.

Mis-ter-i-um mi-ra-bi-le.

This rose is rai-led on a rys; He hath bought the prince of prys,
And in this tyme soth hit ys

This rose is reed of Upon a Cristys co-lour bryght, Throw whom oure joye gan al-lyght, mas-se nyght, Claro Da-vid ger-min-e. Of a rose synge

Cla-ro Da-vid ger-min-e Of a rose

Cla-ro Da-vid ger-min-e Of a rose synge we Miste-ri-um mi-ra-bi-le. Of this rose was Cryst y-bore, To we Miste-ri-um mi-ra-bi-le. Of this rose was Cryst y-bore, To we Miste-ri-um mi-ra-bi-le.

save man-kynde that was for-lore; And us alle from synnes sore, save man-kynde was for-lore; And us alle from synnes sore, Propheatarum carmine. Of a rose synge we Propheatarum carmine. Of a rose synge we Propheatarum carmine. Of a rose synge we Propheatarum carmine. Of a rose synge we Misertium mirabile. This rose, of flour ys she is flour, She Misertium mirabile. This rose, of flour ys she is flour, She Misertium mirabile. This rose, of flour ys she is flour, She Misertium mirabile. This rose, of flour ys she is flour, She Mis-ter-i-um mir-a-bi- le.

This rose is so faire of hywe, Salva-tor sine crimi-ne. Of a rose synge

we Mis-te-ri-um mi-rabi-le.