

Effingham

Isaac Watts, 1719 (Psalm 19) 66. 86. (S.M.)

D Major – William Billings, 1784

1. Be - hold the lof - ty sky Declares its ma - ker God, And
2. His stat - utes and commands are set be - fore our eyes; He
3. His laws are just and pure, His truth with - out de - ceit; His
4. While of Thy works I sing, Thy glo - ry to proclaim, Ac -

8
Tr. 1. all His star - ry works on high Pro - claim His power a - broad.
C. 2. puts His gos - pel in our hands, Where our sal - va - tion lies.
T. 3. prom - i - ses for - ev - er sure, And His re - wards are great.
B. 4. - cept the praise, my God, my King, In my re - deem - er's name.

No Copyright. Transcribed from Massachusetts Harmony, 1784.

Published anonymously in 1784; attributed to William Billings by Karl Kroege, The Hymn 47(3):44-49. 1996.

Original published in 1784 had no words; these added from Isaac Watts' Psalms of David