The Impartial Song

Transcribed from Ingalls' Christian Harmony, 1805.

A minor

Jeremiah Ingalls, 1805

Tr. 1. The great God of love has shown us the way, And taught us the im - par - tial song;
2. Now death starts to die, grace gains the vic - tory, And pride falls a prey to the ground;
3. Sal - va - tion, we see, for all is most free; The mem - bers of Christ are all one:

T. 4. U - ni - tes in one, the race we will run, Press for - ward in faith, with - out fear;
5. Re - pro - ver of sin has shown us the way, The Com - for - ter leads us a - long;
6. We'll mount on the wing, and with ar - dor sing, Our e - cho - ing voi - ces are one:

B. 7. And since it is so, we'll all join and go, And keep on Im - ma - nu - el's ground;
8. We will tune our songs in an - thems of praise, And join with the se - raphs a - bove;
9. Now let us be true, our jour - ney pur - sue, T'ward hea - ven, our glo - ri - ous home;

Tr. 10 The Spi - rit is come, and the work is be - gun, And we all are u - ni - ted in love.
We lift up our heads, as we rise from the dead, And the glo - ry of God shines a - round.
We'll march u - ni - form, with cou - rage face the storm, In the bat - tle our Sa - vior has won.

T. 8 Such glo - ries pur - sue as the world ne - ver knew, Ne - ver will, till the Gos - pel they hear.
The book is un - sealed, The Li - on takes the field, And he learns us the im - par - tial song.
His praise we will sound on Im - ma - nu - el's ground, What a lo - ving Re - dee - mer has done.

B. Un - til time is done, e - ter - ni - ty's be - gun, We will all sing the im - par - tial song.
Free grace we will sound through e - ter - ni - ty's round, When our u - nion shall heigh - ten in love.
Press on by the word Christ left on the re - cord, Sing - ing glo - ry to Je - sus, A - men.

A folk hymn, a form of the Irish air, The Full Little Jug (Jackson 1952, no. 178).
