Now cease my wand'ring eyes

Now cease my wand'ring eyes, Strange beauty to admire, In One man hath but one soul, Which art cannot divide, If Nature two eyes hath given, All beauty to impart, As

Now cease my wand'ring eyes - Dowland

James Gibb editions

Now cease my wand'ring eyes - Dowland

(1563-1626)
One faith, one love, Makes our frail pleasures eternal and in sweetness prove,
Though we see Ten thousand beauties, yet in us one should be,

One soul, one love, By faith and merit united can not remove,
Ties, yet in us one should be,

That though we see Ten thousand beauties,

One faith, one love, Makes our frail pleasures eternal and in sweetness prove,

One soul, one love, By faith and merit united can not remove,

That though we see Ten thousand beauties,

James Gibb editions
New hopes, new joys, Are still with sorrowDistracted sprites, Are ever changing andOne steadfast love, Because our hearts stand

New hopes, new joys, Are still with sorrowDistracted sprites, Are ever changing andOne steadfast love, Because our hearts stand

Now cease my wand'ring eyes - Dowland