Dear, if you change

John Dowland
(1563-1626)

1. Dear, if you change, I'll ne-ver choose again. Sweet, if you shrink, I'll dorn. Heav'n her bright stars through

2. Earth with her flow'rs shall soon-er heav'n again. Sweet, if you shrink, you shrink dorn, Heav'n her bright stars, bright stars

I'll through

James Gibb editions

Dear, if you change - Dowland if you fail, I'll judge all beauty heat shall lose, and frosts of flames be if you fail, you fail, I'll judge all beauty lose, shall lose, and frosts of flames be

if you fail, I'll judge all beauty
heat shall lose, and frosts of flames be

vain. Wise, I too weak, borne, Air made to shine vain. Wise, if too weak, too weak, more wits, more_ borne, Air made to shine, to shine as black, as_ vain. Wise, if too weak, more wits I'll borne, Air made to shine as black as more wits I'll never prove. Dear, as black as hell shall prove: Earth, wits, I'll never prove. Dear, sweet, black as hell shall prove: Earth, heav'n, ne- ver prove, more wits I'll ne- ver prove. Dear, sweet, fair, hell shall prove, as black as hell shall prove: Earth, heav'en, fire, wits I'll ne- ver prove. Dear, sweet, fair, black as hell shall prove: Earth, heav'n, fire,

Dear, if you change - Dowland

James Gibb editions