3. Then to His new com - mands be strict o - be - dience paid; O'er all His Fath - er's house He stands, The sove - reign and the head.

4. The man that durst des - pise the law that Mos - es brought, Be - hold, how terr - i - bly he dies, for his pre - sumptuous fault.

5. But sor - er ven - geance falls on that re - bell - ious race who hate to hear when Je - sus calls, and dare re - sist His grace.
