Stanley Lucas, Weber & Co.
(1873)

William Archibald Howells (1848-1897) was born in Carmarthenshire, Wales. He moved to London and trained at the Royal Academy of Music. A tenor, he established himself in London as a teacher and professional singer, appearing at many concerts and events throughout the region. He died in Islington. He published a few songs and part songs.

Peaceful slumbering on the ocean,
Seamen fear no danger nigh,
The winds and waves in gentle motion,
Sooth them with their Lullaby.

Lullaby, Lullaby.

Is the wind tempestuous blowing?
Still no danger they descry,
The guileless heart, its boon bestowing,
Sooths them with its lullaby.

Lullaby, lullaby.

From the opera The Pirates
Stephen John Seymour Storace (1762-1796)
Libretto, James Cobb (1756-1818)
