Psalm 67

No copyright. Transcribed from The Scottish Psalter, 1635.

Genevan Exiles, 1560

William Whittingham, 1596

55. 55. 55. 55.

C Major

Edited by B. C. Johnston, 2015

1. Time signatures superimposed. Barlines in original represented by double bars here.
2. Counter moved down one octave. All notes half value of original.
3. Maintained in C major.

---

1. Our God that is Lord, And au-thor of grace, Turn to us poor souls
2. That while on this earth We wan-der and walk, Thy ways may be known
3. The peo-ple there-fore, O God, let them praise Thy won-der-ful works
4. O let the whole world Be glad and re-joice, And praise Thee their God
5. O sove-reign God, Whose works pass all fame, Let all peo-ple praise
6. So shalt Thou then cause The earth fruit to bear Most pleni-ti-ful-ly,
7. So then shall we feel God’s bles-sings each one: And so of His grace

---

His mer-ci-ful face. In thought, deed, and talk. And how Thy great-love De-fend us with might,
And mer-ci-ful ways: Ye shall let all the world, Both far wide, and near
Thy glo-ri-ous name: All peo-ple, I say, In ev-ery place,
And ev-ery where: And God, ev-en God On whom we do call,
There shall com-plain none. Then all the world’s ends, And coun-tries through-out,
And show us His love, And coun-tenance bright.
Praise Thee, their Lord God, With rev-erence and fear.
Let them give Thee praise, And ex-tol Thy grace.
His mar-ve-rous power Shall fear and re-doubt.

---

C.*************************************************
T.*************************************************
B.*************************************************