Fie on this feigning

John Dowland

Cantus

Fie on this feigning, Is love without desire,
Show some relenting, Or grant thou dost now love,
Truth is not placed In words and forced smiles,

Altus

Fie on this feigning, Is love without desire,
Show some relenting, Or grant thou dost now love,
Truth is not placed In words and forced smiles,

Tenor

Fie on this feigning, Is love without desire,
Show some relenting, Or grant thou dost now love,
Truth is not placed In words and forced smiles,

Bassus

Fie on this feigning, Is love without desire,
Show some relenting, Or grant thou dost now love,
Truth is not placed In words and forced smiles,

Heat still remaining And yet no spark of fire?
Two hearts consenting Shall they no comforts prove?
Love is not graced With that which still beguiles,

#16 from The Third and Last Book of Ayres
Love or dis like, - love or dis like - yield fire, or give no

Yield or con fess, - yield or dis like yield fire, or give no

Thou art un true, nor wer't with fancy

Yield or con fess, that love is with out

Love or dis like, yield fire, or give no

Thou art un true, nor wer't with fancy

Yield or con fess, that love is with out

Love or dis like, yield fire, or give no

Thou art un true, nor wer't with fancy

Yield or con fess, that love is with out

Love or dis like, yield fire, or give no

Thou art un true, nor wer't with fancy

Yield or con fess, that love is with out

Love or dis like, yield fire, or give no

mov ed, for de sire hath plea sure, And that wo men's fu el, so may'st thou prove mov ed, for de sire, de sire hath plea sure, And that wo men's boun ties, fu el, so may'st thou prove kind, prove

mov ed, For de sire, de sire hath plea sure, And that wo men's fu el, So may'st thou, may'st thou prove kind, or at the least, the least cruel.

bounties rob men of their treasure.

power on all, on all that ever loved.

kind, prove kind or at the least less cruel.