

Psalm 134 - Behold and have regard

William Whittingham (c.1524-1579)
in The Whole Booke of Psalmes,
ed. Thomas Ravenscroft (1621)

ATBarB

Tune: Southwell (S.M.)
Martin Peirson (c.1571- c.1651)
Final verse harm. by Charles H. Giffen, 2011

Plainsong

Be - hold and have re - gard, ye ser - vants of the Lord:

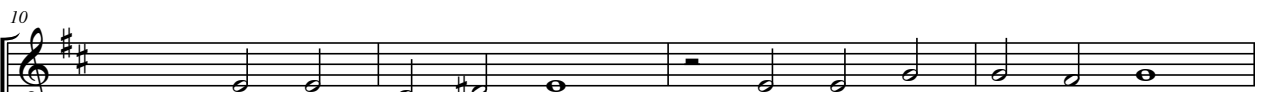

5

Which in his house by night do watch, praise him with one ac - cord.

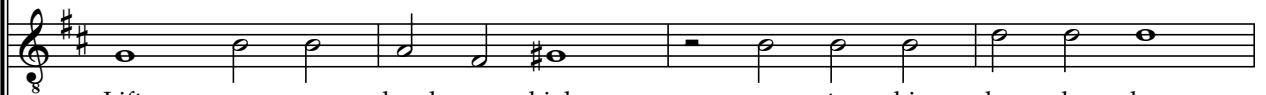

10

Alto

Lift up your heads on high, un - to his ho - ly place:

Tenor

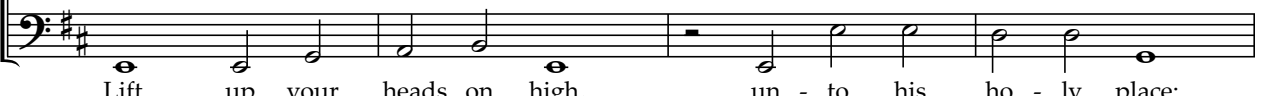

Lift up your heads on high, un - to his ho - ly place:

Baritone

Lift up your heads on high, un - to his ho - ly place:

Bass

Lift up your heads on high, un - to his ho - ly place:

14

And give the Lord his prais - es due, his be - ne - fits em - brace.

And give the Lord his prais - es due, his be - ne - fits em - brace.

And give the Lord his prais - es due, his be - ne - fits em - brace.

And give the Lord his prais - es due, his be - ne - fits em - brace.

19

For why? The Lord who did both earth and

For why? The Lord who did both earth and

For why? The Lord who did both earth and

For why? The Lord who did both earth and

22

heaven frame: Doth Si-on bless, and will con-

heaven frame: Doth Si-on bless, and will con-

heaven frame: Doth Si-on bless, and will con-

heaven frame: Doth Si-on bless, and will con-

25

serve for ever-more the same.

serve for ever-more the same.

serve for ever-more the same.

serve for ever-more the same.