D. C. Heath and Company
(1890)

Charles Edward Whiting (1833-1923) was born in Holliston, Massachusetts. He was an instructor in music in the Boston public schools for over forty years. He authored a series of textbooks on music, "The Public School Music Course." His compositions and arrangements were mostly songs for his music textbooks. His younger brother George Elbridge Whiting (1840-1923) was also an accomplished musician and composer.

Peacefully slumb'ring on the ocean,
Seamen dread no danger nigh,
The winds and waves in gentle motion
Soothe them with their lullaby,
Lullaby;
Soothe them with their lullaby.

Is the wind tempestuous blowing?
Still no danger they descry,
The guileless heart its love bestowing,
Soothes them with its lullaby,
Lullaby;
Soothes them with its lullaby.

He who when wild waves are rolling
Puts his trust in God on high,
Amid the tempest's fiercest howling
Still enjoys a lullaby,
Lullaby;
Still enjoys a lullaby.
