

Protection

Transcribed from Songs of Zion, 1821

Tr.  5 10

1. Tis Jesus pro- tects me, my fears now remove, And let me enjoy the sweet smiles of my love; Though pressed with temp-

C.

2. When Jesus was tempted and tried like a man, The ma- lice of Satan was vented in vain; And I, by the

T.  8

3. Hard combats, a- las! in the field are at hand: Ten thousand as- sai- lants be- fore us do stand; But vic- tory is

B.

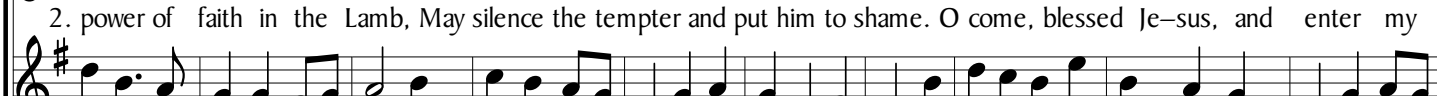

4. Here, faith on the one hand gives strength to the soul; And love on the other the passions control; The an- chor of

Tr.  15 20

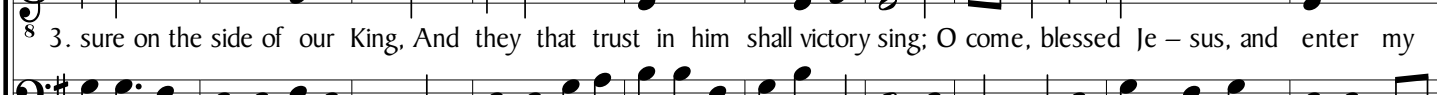

1. -ta- tion, the tempter shall fly Where faith in its power bids Jesus draw nigh; O come, blessed Je- sus, and enter my

C.

2. power of faith in the Lamb, May silence the tempter and put him to shame. O come, blessed Je- sus, and enter my

T.  8

3. sure on the side of our King, And they that trust in him shall victory sing; O come, blessed Je- sus, and enter my

B.

4. hope, when it is fixed secure, The waves of temptation whall safely endure. O come, blessed Je- sus, and enter my

Tr.  25

1. heart, And sorrow and sighing shall quickly de- part.

C.

2. heart, And sorrow and sighing shall quickly de- part.

T.  8

3. heart, And sorrow and sighing shall quickly de- part.

B.

4. heart, And sorrow and sighing shall quickly de- part.