

Gentle winds,
around her hover

J. T. Musgrave

(1851-1920)

John Thomas Musgrave (1851-1920) was born in Leeds, England. He was known as an organist and his compositions were mainly hymns and works for organ. He died in London.

Gentle winds, around her hover,
Seek the bower where she sleeps,
Whisper, zephyrs, how I love her,
Though my lip still silent keeps;
Tell her that my peace is flown,
Say my heart is all her own;
Mingle, zephyrs, with her sigh,
Bid her let me hope or die.
Gentle winds, around her hover,
Seek the bower where she sleeps,
Whisper zephyrs, how I love her,
Though my lip, my lip still silent keeps.

Gentle moon that shinest above her,
In yon dark blue vault afar,
Whisper softly how I love her,
Say she is my guiding star;
Let thy pure and holy beams
Fall upon her while she dreams;
Murmur, moonbeam, how I sigh,
But for her I live or die.
Gentle winds, around her hover,
Seek the bower where she sleeps;
Whisper softly how I love her,
Though my lip still silent keeps.

Joseph Edwards Carpenter (1813-1885)

TERMS OF USE

These editions are available as a service to the choral community, offering inexpensive access to public domain literature. Choir resources can purchase other literature still under copyright, especially to support those creating and publishing new compositions and arrangements. These editions have been created using public domain sources under U. S. copyright law. Out of respect to the research, time and effort invested:

- please print and issue an edition in its entirety, retaining notices, attributions, and logos.
- please do not consider this edition a source for creating another edition.

If performed, sending a copy of the concert program would be a valuable affirmation. If recorded, notification and attribution would be appropriate professional courtesies and a copy of the recording would be greatly appreciated!
