99

A musical score for five voices (Soprano, Alto, Tenor, Bass, and Bassoon) in common time, key signature of one flat. The vocal parts sing eighth-note patterns, while the Bassoon part provides harmonic support. Measure 99 starts with Soprano and Alto entries. Measures 100 and 101 show more complex harmonic movement with changes in bassoon entries. Measure 102 concludes with a sustained note from the Bassoon.

103

A musical score for five voices (Soprano, Alto, Tenor, Bass, and Bassoon) in common time, key signature of one flat. The vocal parts sing eighth-note patterns, while the Bassoon part provides harmonic support. The vocal entries are labeled "men." at the end of each measure. Measures 103-106 show a repeating pattern of eighth-note chords followed by sustained notes from the Bassoon.

Translation

Let my complaint come before thee, O Lord; give me understanding, according to thy word.
Let my supplication come before thee; deliver me, according to thy word.
My lips shall speak of thy praise, when thou hast taught me thy statutes.
Yea, my tongue shall sing of thy word, for all thy commandments are righteous.
Let thine hand help me, for I have chosen thy commandments.
I have longed for thy saving health, O Lord, and in thy law is my delight.
O let my soul live, and it shall praise thee, and thy judgements shall help me.
I have gone astray like a sheep that is lost: O seek thy servant, O Lord, for I do not forget thy commandments.
(Book of Common Prayer, Psalm 119, vv. 169–76)

Editorial Conventions

The nomenclature of the voice-parts follows the Tudor convention.
The original clef, staff signature, mensuration symbol and first note of each part are shown on the prefatory staves.
Proportional signs are shown above the staff.
Editorial accidentals are placed above the notes concerned and remain operative throughout the bar. Accidentals not present individually in the source but implied by the original staff signatures are placed before the note and have a superscript dot.
The sign  denotes a ligature.
Spelling of the text has been modernised.
Text repetition signs in the underlay have been expanded editorially in italics.

Notes on the Readings of the Source

In the notes below, each reference to a bar or group of bars is separated by an oblique stroke. Within these references multiple readings in the same voice are separated by commas and readings in different voices by semicolons. The order within each entry is: 1) bar number; 2) voice; 3) reading of the source. For extended references subsequent bar numbers are in brackets. Pitches are in capital letters, preceded by a number where necessary, e.g. ¹C = first note C in the bar or group of bars.
