

Unknown Author
11 11. 11 11. 11 11.

Protection

Transcribed from Songs of Zion, 1821

E minor
James P. Carrell, 1821

Tr.  5 10

1. Tis Jesus pro- tects me, my fears now remove, And let me enjoy the sweet smiles of my love; Though pressed with temptation, the tempter shall fly Where

C.

2. When Jesus was tempted and tried like a man, The ma - lice of Satan was vented in vain; And I, by the power of faith in the lamb, May

T.  8

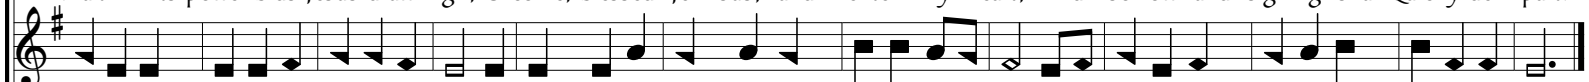

3. Hard combats, a - las! in the field are at hand: Ten thousand as - sai-lants be-fore us do stand; But vic-tory is sure on the side of our King, And

B.

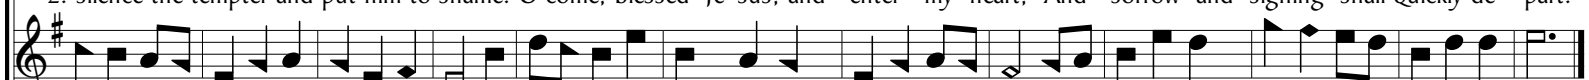

4. Here, faith on the one hand gives strength to the soul; And love on the other the passions control; The an-chor of hope, when it is fixed se-cure, The

Tr.  15 20 25

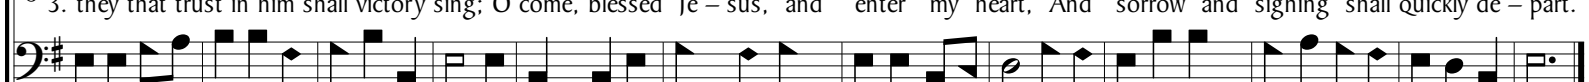

1. faith in its power bids Jesus draw nigh; O come, blessed Je - sus, and enter my heart, And sorrow and sighing shall quickly de - part.

C.

2. silence the tempter and put him to shame. O come, blessed Je - sus, and enter my heart, And sorrow and sighing shall quickly de - part.

T.  8

3. they that trust in him shall victory sing; O come, blessed Je - sus, and enter my heart, And sorrow and sighing shall quickly de - part.

B.

4. waves of temptation shall safely endure. O come, blessed Je - sus, and enter my heart, And sorrow and sighing shall quickly de - part.