Charles Edward Whiting (1833-1923) was born in Holliston, Massachusetts. He was an instructor in music in the Boston public schools for over forty years. He authored a series of textbooks on music, "The Public School Music Course." His compositions and arrangements were mostly songs for his music textbooks. His younger brother George Elbridge Whiting (1840-1923) was also an accomplished musician and composer.

On airy wings
The skylark springs
To yonder cloud on high;
His thanks to God
He flings abroad,
And fills the wide blue sky.

O songster rare,
You swing up there—
Creation's morning bell!
My songs I'll blend
With yours, and send Them up to heaven as well.

LITTLE SINGING BIRD Joseph Gersbach (1787-1830)
transl. James Steven Stallybrass (1826-1888)

TERMS OF USE

These editions are available as a service to the choral community, offering inexpensive access to public domain literature. Choir resources can purchase other literature still under copyright, especially to support those creating and publishing new compositions and arrangements. These editions have been created using public domain sources under U. S. copyright law. Out of respect to the research, time and effort invested:

- please print and issue an edition in its entirety, retaining notices, attributions, and logos.
- please do not consider this edition a source for creating another edition.

If recorded, notification and attribution would be appropriate professional courtesies.
