

Truro

Transcribed from The Middlesex Harmony, 1803.

Tr.  5 10

1. 0 praise ye the Lord, prepare your glad voice, His praise in the great as - sem - bly to sing: In their great cre - a - tor let all men re-
2. Let them his great name extol in the dance; With tim-brel and harp his prai - ses express: Who always takes pleasure his saints to ad-

C.

3. With glory adorned, his people shall sing To God, who their beds with safety does shield: Their mouths filled with praises of him their great

T.  8

4. Just vengeance to take for in - ju - ries past; To punish those lands for ruin de - signed; With chains, as their captives, to tie their kings
5. Thus shall they make good, when them they destroy, The dreadful decree which God does proclaim: Such honour and triumph his saints shall en-

B.

Tr.  15 20

1. -joy; And heirs of sal - va - tion be glad in their King. And heirs of sal - va - tion be glad in their King.
2. -vance, And with his sal - va - tion the hum - ble to bless. And with his sal - va - tion the hum - ble to bless.

C.

3. King; While a two-edged sword their right hand shall wield. While a two-edged sword their right hand shall wield.

T.  8

4. fast, With fetters of ir - on their no - bles to bind. With fet - ters of ir - on their no - bles to bind.
5. -joy, O therefore for - ev - er ex - alt his great name! O therefore for - ev - er ex - alt his great name!

B.

*. First stanza modified by Babcock for this work. Original wording:

O praise ye the Lord, prepare your glad voice,
His praise in the great assembly to sing:
In our great creator let Israel rejoice;
And children of Sion be glad in their King.