

Unknown Author
First published 1803
88. 88. 88.

Ordination Hymn

No copyright. Transcribed from The Charlestown Collection, 1803.

A Major
Oliver Holden, 1803

Treble
Counter
Tenor
Bass

1. O what a happy, happy day, When ancient saints were heard to say, "To Zion's hill let us repair, To Zion's hill let us repair." With equal joy our willing feet Approach the con-se-

2. Convened within this temple, Lord, Thy glorious presence now afford, And fill each heart with sacred love, And fill each heart with sacred love: This solemn rite with favor crown, And shed Thy promised

3. While now for Zion's peace we pray, O let us hear our Savior say, "Thy prayers are heard, thy choice I own, Thy prayers are heard, thy choice I own." Then shall Thy mourning church arise, And vie with all be -

Tr.
C.
T.
B.

1. cra - ted seat, And bow with humble reverence here, And bow with humble reverence here.

2. blessing down, With heavenly influence from above, With heavenly influence from above.

3. - low the skies, In grateful songs before Thy throne, In grateful songs before Thy throne.