Come, come, ye hap - py, hap - py saints, The heav'n - ly Lamb a - dore;
 Spread his dear name through all the earth, Sing his e - ter - nal pow'r,
 Up to the courts where now he reigns May all our spi - rits soar,
 Hark how the an - gels chant his name, See how they all a - dore;

Come, come, ye hap - py, hap - py saints, The heav'n - ly Lamb a - dore;

Saints who surround his dazzling throne
Their tuneful voices raise;
Higher than angels bear their songs,
The glorious song of praise.

Come, O my spirit, higher still
Swell the celestial lays:
Higher than all the heights of heav'n
Sound Jesu's endless praise.

Notes:

The order of staves in the source is Tenor - [Alto] - Air - [Bass], with the Alto part printed in the treble clef an octave above sounding pitch.

Only the first verse of text is given in the source: subsequent verses have here been added editorially, using the text as given in A Select Collection of Hymns, to be universally sung in all the Countess of Huntingdon's Chapels, London: C. Corrall, 1803.
